Learning Full Stack Web Development

CAREER SUMMARY:

An enthusiastic and results-driven software developer with Proficiency in C, C++, HTML 5, CSS 3, SQL, and Python. Currently expanding my skills in full stack web development, with a strong desire to build innovative, scalable, and efficient web applications. A quick learner with a solid foundation in programming concepts, problem-solving abilities, and the drive to stay updated with the latest technologies.

RELEVANT PROJECT:

Chocolate Product

A project based on (HTML 5 & CSS 3) From Scratch

Developed a chocolate product website with key features including user login, product display, order page, payment gateway, and separate login portals for delivery boys and agents. Although the website is not yet responsive, it provides a solid foundation for e-commerce functionality and user interaction.

- Page Linking: All pages are interlinked for smooth user experience and easy navigation.
- Advertisement Section: An area dedicated to showcasing advertisements or special offers to attract customer attention.
- Special Products Section: A section highlighting featured or special chocolate products for enhanced user engagement.
- Contact Section in Footer: Provides customers with easy access to contact information for inquiries or support.

SQL Project For Same Website :

Developed a chocolate product e-commerce website with a MySQL database to manage essential data including special products, other products, users, delivery agents, salespersons, and orders. Although the database is created to store and manage product and user information, as well as track orders and roles, it is not yet integrated with the website.
